Have you already graduated from high school or earned your high school equivalency? (i.e. GED, homeschool, or alternative HS completion program)

- YES
  - Have you completed one or more terms of college (and have a college GPA) since graduating from high school?
    - YES
      - Submit a copy of your unofficial college transcript from the college or university where you are currently attending or most recently attended displaying your cumulative GPA through the most recent date possible.
    - NO
      - How will you or did you earn your high school credential?
        - Through a public or private high school.
          - You do not need to submit a transcript. WSOS will verify your GPA through OSPI or your high school.
        - Through a GED.
          - Submit a copy of your official GED scores.
        - Through homeschooling.
          - Submit a copy of your homeschool high school transcript.
        - Through an alternative high school completion program at a community college.
          - Submit a copy of your unofficial alternative high school transcript.